Additional information about Weis and Sustainability

Weis Markets, Inc. was founded in 1912 and today currently employs approximately 18,000 associates. Weis Markets, Inc. has recently been recognized by the National Recycling Coalition (NRC) for its food waste composting initiative, and its reusable and plastic bag recycling programs with the 2016 annual “Business Leadership in Recycling Award.” In 2015, Weis recycled 33,000 tons of material and set a goal to increase this total by another five percent in 2016.

The award recognizes Weis Markets for its food composting program currently conducted in 70 stores throughout the Mid Atlantic region, its creative recycling of waxed cardboard that is used to produce Enviro-Log Fire Logs sold in company stores, and its recycling of plastic bags, which are used to produce Trex wood-alternative decking. The plastic lumber made from these bags is also built into benches that are distributed throughout local communities. For more information about Weis Markets sustainability program, click here.
